

The Christian Community Placement Center is often looking to hire part-time (20-30 hours per week) youth mentors. Hours will be varied and could include evenings, days, and weekends.

Compensation: $11 - 14 per/hour, depending on experience and qualifications. All travel, meals, and activities with/for youth are covered or reimbursed.

Minimum Qualifications: Must be 21 years of age. Must have cell phone and reliable vehicle (with insurance). Must pass background check and have clean driving record.

Experience with youth in education, mental health, social work, or criminal justice is a plus. Bachelor's degree in previous focus areas is a plus but not required.

Description: Skills trainers work 1 on 1 with youth and teens in the community on weekends and after school. Skills trainers attend monthly training sessions and receive regular supervision from supervisor. They are assigned youth on a contract by contract basis and work independently to meet with their youth, work on treatment goals and establish a positive working relationship.
