

Case Manager / Assistant Program Coordinator: CCPC is opening a new residential youth program, and is seeking two qualified individuals to work as full-time (40 hours per week) Case Managers/Assistant Program Coordinators. Case Managers are responsible for overseeing the treatment plan of 4-5 high needs youth. Youth in this program will be paroled from MacLaren Youth Correctional Facility, and many will have complex trauma histories. These positions include a robust 100% employer-paid health plan, 3% employer-matched retirement program, life insurance and a salaried wage of between $2,773-$2,946 monthly ($33,280-$35,360 annually).

Minimum requirements: Must have a Master's degree from an accredited college or university with major study in social work or a closely allied field and one year of experience in the care and treatment of children or young adults; or have a Bachelor's degree with major study in social work, psychology, sociology or a closely allied field and two years of experience in the care and rehabilitation of children or young adults. Employees must be able to pass a background check with fingerprints and be eligible to be placed on CCPC's auto insurance plan (good driving record).

To apply: Please send a resume via the contact form at ccpcusa.com/contact-us.